

AMERICA'S ESSENTIAL HOSPITALS

Beth Feldpush, DrPH

Senior Vice President of Policy and Advocacy
America's Essential Hospitals

Feldpush provides strategic leadership and advocacy on behalf of hospitals and health systems that care for vulnerable people and provide vital services to communities. She directs the association's federal government affairs portfolio, policy development activities, and internal and external communications. She also manages the association's participation in and leadership of coalitions and allied organization activities, acting as a liaison to other stakeholder organizations.

Feldpush previously served as a senior associate director for policy at the American Hospital Association (AHA), where she worked on health care delivery system reform and hospital quality and patient safety issues. Before joining AHA, Feldpush worked at the U.S. Government Accountability Office as a senior health care analyst. Feldpush also has worked as manager of governmental affairs and public relations at the American Medical Women's Association.

In 2013, Modern Healthcare magazine recognized Feldpush as an "Up & Comer." She serves as adjunct faculty for The George Washington University (GW) Milken Institute School of Public Health Department of Health Policy and is a reviewer for the Journal for Healthcare Quality.

Feldpush holds a Doctor of Public Health in health policy from GW, a master's degree of public health from the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, and a bachelor's degree summa cum laude in women's health from the University of Richmond.
