

AMERICA'S ESSENTIAL HOSPITALS

John Benz

Senior Strategic Advisor
Sellers Dorsey

With more than 40 years of experience in the health care industry, Benz has a proven track record of developing transformational strategies and fostering collaboration through clinical alliances and partnerships. He currently serves as senior strategic advisor to Sellers Dorsey, where he leverages his experience in Medicaid managed care to help providers develop comprehensive strategies to improve financing and operations.

Before working with Sellers Dorsey, Benz served as president and CEO of Community Care Plan (CCP), the Health Plan with a Heart, from 2014 to 2019. CCP services Medicaid, Children's Medicaid Services Network, and several self-insured employee health plans. CCP is owned by Broward Health/North Broward Hospital District and Memorial Healthcare System/ South Broward Hospital District.

Benz also previously served as senior vice president and chief strategic officer for Memorial Healthcare System (MHS), one of the nation's five largest public health care systems. In this role, he provided executive leadership and propelled MHS as a leader in providing high-quality health care services to the South Florida community.

Benz holds a master's degree in business from Nova Southeastern University. He completed a fellowship program offered by The Healthcare Forum and is a diplomate in the American College of Healthcare Executives.
